Itinerary

The journey from Vancouver is the beginning of your adventure; a scenic land transfer up the famous Sea to Sky Corridor through Whistler to Pemberton, followed by an air or ground transfer to Tyax Lodge.

The Tyax Lodge team will be waiting to greet you and bring you into the lodge. After a safety orientation and some essential paperwork, you will have the evening to settle into the lodge and make use of the amenities and spa, before your first gourmet dinner is served.

Heliskiing starts first thing the next morning after a hearty breakfast and stretch class. Lunch is served in the mountains, and each day after skiing, après ski is served in the lounge and bar. Enjoy massage treatments and body work, or some relaxation in the hot tub, wood sauna, or eucalyptus steam room.

On the final day of skiing, guests will return to the lodge to prepare for their departure via air or ground. Please note that in some conditions we are unable to fly and will transport by ground. Ground transfers depart from the lodge back to Whistler and Vancouver, arriving late.
