

Feast for the Senses Tour

4 Hours 30 Mins Victoria to Victoria

From USD$112 per person

You can learn a lot about a culture through its food and drink, and this tour into Victoria's sizzling scene does not disappoint! Discover Sea Cider, a new hotspot on the city's radar and a total feast for the senses. Along with samples of the cider you'll be treated to West Coast charcuterie, which includes local cheeses, Red Barn sausage, smoked salmon dip, dijon mustard, bread, crackers, pickles and olives. Oh, and did we mention the view? Savour the breathtaking ocean and mountain vistas at this award-winning cidery, then continue on to the Victoria Caledonian Brewery and Distillery, a popular spot offering the best single malts and pot still whiskies in the finest Scottish tradition. Sip on a refreshing IPA beer or robust porter as you learn about the distilling process. With an award-winning maturation expert and a seasoned master distiller who grew up in the business, you're truly in for a treat. This 4.5 hour tour is a must-do for foodies and craft beer, whisky and cider lovers.
