

Downtown Food and City Tour (formerly, Knife & Fort Culinary Tour)

2 Hours Victoria to Victoria

From USD$38 per person

The Fort and Blanshard Corridor is one of the most exciting downtown neighbourhoods to experience food in Victoria. Teeming with local small restaurants, quirky shops, and home to the emerging tech sector, this bustling area is where the locals shop, eat, and hang out. Join this tour to visit 8 local shops and visit historic sights such as St. Andrew's Cathedral and the iconic Royal Theatre.

We start the tour at the ingredient-driven restaurant The Courtney Room. Recently listed as one of the top 10 new restaurants in Canada by En Route Magazine, this beautiful French bistro will sure to get our taste buds excited for what's to come. We then head to the Artisan Wine Shop for a BC wine tasting. Did you know that 95% of BC wine is consumed within BC and that we are now the largest producing wine region in Canada? So drink it while you are here! We then dive right in to Victoria's best kept secrets like fresh warm cookies from The Cookie Guy (voted one of the top 10 emerging entrepreneurs in the city), house-smoked and cured meats from Choux Choux Charcuterie, a mole-infused taco from La Taquiza, a selection of Middle Eastern street food from Yalla, a unique Asian-inspired tea from ParTea and finally some mind blowing dessert from Crust Bakery, voted the city's best bakery. Come hungry!
