

Remote Getaway

Departing Ketchikan

From USD$245 per person

Join a 50-minute flightseeing tour where you climb aboard and press your nose to the glass, because once you have clearance to take off from Tongass Narrows, you're in the air, up and over one of Alaska's most bustling harbours. Depending on weather and departure patterns, you may spot marine life, black bears, mountain goats, deer and eagles. Included in this tour is a mid-flight wilderness landing. You'll get out of the plane to get up close and personal with your very own piece of Alaska.
