What To Bring

- Don't worry about what type of bag to pack your clothing in, as we will be repacking your clothes in our canoe packs.
- Rain Gear - A jacket with hood and separate pants work best.
- Foot Wear - The trip requires a solid running shoe with rubber soles. A second pair of sandals/shoes is necessary for evening. Count on the trail shoes getting very wet and muddy during the day.
- Warm Clothes - Remember to bring a wind proof shell / jacket, warm sweater (wool or fleece), warm wool socks, long pants, and long sleeved shirt. Synthetic long underwear like polypropylene, a hat/toque and gloves are also a good idea for spring and fall trips.
- Sun Protection - Dehydration and sunburn can wreak havoc on your energy so bring along a water bottle, sun hat, sunglasses, sunscreen, and shorts.
- Bug Dope - While spring (May 20 to July 10) is bug season, bogs and portages can be buggy in August! Bring along insect repellent. Anything with Deet level over 25% will be effective.
- Other Important Items - Bathing suit (for a swim), towel, T-shirt(s), bandanna, flashlight, camera with extra batteries, daypack (to hold rain gear, water bottle during hikes and canoeing.)

Itinerary

Day 1 Toronto to Algonquin, Afternoon Hike and Canoe to Log Cabin

Morning transfer (included) from Toronto to meet at the Voyageur Quest rendezvous location situated at the northwest corner of Algonquin Park. Take an interpretative hike to Music Lake featuring an introduction to the boreal forest, beaver ponds, and spruce bogs. A picnic lunch at Music Lake is included before hiking to Surprise Lake where a 26-foot Voyageur Canoe waits. Enjoy a leisurely paddle as we “island hop” our way down the lake and arrive via canoe at the Algonquin Log Cabin. Relax, swim or take a sauna. Canadian dinner followed by a night hike focusing on Loon calls, Barred Owl hoots and Wolf howls.

Day 2 Guided Hike Morning wild edibles walk to Lookout Bluff overlooking Algonquin Lakes. Return for lunch back to the Log Cabin. Afternoon to relax, explore Surprise Lake on your own, or take part in a traditional Canadian lore workshop (make your own Canadian memory) and bush craft/wood skills. Late afternoon paddle to campfire point for sunset, bonfire and dinner. After dinner, learn all about the northern sky. Then night paddle back to Log Cabin.

Day 3. Canoeing, Afternoon Return to Toronto Voyageur start and optional sunrise paddle. Search for Moose and beaver lodges and take advantage of ideal photography opportunities. Cook out maple syrup breakfast. Then return to Lodge for Canadian BBQ lunch, swim and sauna. Depart by 4pm and arrive in downtown Toronto at 7:30pm.

Please note that on Day 1 of the trip you do not need to carry all of your belongings with you on the hike and paddle to the Log Cabin. You need only carry a day pack on the walk in hike with the items you need including a camera, sunscreen, hat and water bottle.

How Much Experience Do You Need None! The “Algonquin Canoe Trip” is for people at any level of experience. Other than those guests returning to Algonquin Park after a long break, most of our guests are experiencing Algonquin Park for the first time. Our pace is very relaxed, as the trip objective is to have fun, slow down and leave plenty of time to explore the beauty of the Park.
