INTRODUCTION

Join us for a delicious walking tour of downtown Victoria to experience some of the best hidden culinary gems in the city. All of the stops are small businesses that the locals know and love. Historic sights include the Inner Harbour, St. Andrews Cathedral, The Royal Theater, bustling Fort Street and more.

We start the tour at the Visitor Information Centre and get an introduction to the city with great views of iconic Inner Harbour buildings such as The Parliament Building and The Empress Hotel. We then make our way to Bernard Callebaut, a chocolate shop that has been serving Victoria for over 30 years! Here we try a few of their most popular chocolates made with organic and sustainable milk and dark chocolate. We then head to the Artisan Wine Shop for a BC wine tasting. Did you know that 95% of BC wine is consumed within BC and that we are now the largest producing wine region in Canada? So drink it while you are here!

We then dive right in to Victoria's best kept secrets like fresh Banh Mi sandwiches, house-cured meats & cheeses from Choux Charcuterie, a mole-infused taco from La Taquiza, a selection of Middle Eastern street food from Yalla, a unique Asian-inspired tea from SH91 and finally some mind-blowing dessert from Crust Bakery, voted the city's best bakery. Come hungry!
